Pesach is Coming Soon...
....and Conference is less than two weeks later

If you are still “thinking” about joining us for Shabbat during AOTA Conference in Salt Lake City -- April 19-22
– stop “thinking” and sign up TODAY!!
We MUST have all Shabbat reservations
BEFORE Pesach!!!

Here is the link to Conference Registration and Hotel Registration:

Here is the link to the OJOTC Shabbat Meals form

This year, our Shabbat meals will NOT be at the Conference hotel, but will be at the Convention Center That will make it easier for those who wish to sit in on sessions or get together with friends and colleagues.

Please feel free to contact us with any questions at SaltLake@OJOTC.org or by phone t 973-896-4458

Our Shabbat dinner and lunch will be catered by

“Kosher On the Go”

1575 South 1100 East

Salt Lake City, UT

(801) 463-1786 – (801) 755-6194

(under the supervision of Chabad of Utah)

Dinner and Lunch are $40 per person per meal

(click here to sign up for meals)

(we MUST have reservations prior to Pesach)

Shalosh Seudot is "bring your own and share"

If enough men join us we will have Minyanim Friday night and Shabbat.

Important notice about Kosher food at the Thursday evening Expo...

Once again, AOTA is offering a Kosher option for those WHO REQUEST IT IN ADVANCE.. (see your registrtion brochure for information)

We have checked.
The meal is coming from
"Kosher on the Go"
1575 South 110 East
Salt Lake City

It is Cholov Yisroel / Pas Yisroel (under Chabad supervision)

IMPORTANT: IF YOU SIGN UP AND ASK FOR ONE OF THE MEALS – PLEASE TAKE IT. DO NOT LEAVE IT !!!!

OJOTC works with AOTA to make sure that Kosher food offerings are up to proper Kashruth standards.

AOTA pays extra to make sure we have Kosher meals.

In the past years, many of the meals have not been taken.

This is an embarassment to us and to the Frum community.

If the meal is not to your liking – take it and offer it to a colleague.

Please – do not let it sit!!!!

A Survey from an OT Student at New York University.
Please help her by responding to it, if you are able to..

OT's role in school bullying against students with disabilities: Invitation to participate in survey

If you're a school based occupational therapist, please consider participating in our online survey about OT's role in school bullying against students with disabilities. Your participation in this study will help us to identify the ways that occupational therapists can combat bullying in the school system.

The online survey will take no more than 10 minutes to complete. At the end of the survey, you will have the choice to be entered into a drawing for a gift card.

To go directly to the survey, click

If linking does not work, please cut and paste the above website address, ensuring that you have the complete address, into your browser, e.g., Internet Explorer.

There are no known risks associated with your participation in this research. Although you will receive no direct benefits, this research may help the investigators understand occupational therapist's role in school bullying against students with disabilities. By completing the survey, you are providing consent for the researchers to utilize the information you provide as data for analysis and in presentations and publications. Confidentiality of your research records will be strictly maintained as this is an anonymous survey that will never directly link to your individual identity.

If there is anything about the study or your participation that is unclear or that you do not understand, if you have questions or wish to report a research-related problem, you may contact Janet Njelesani at janet.njelesani@nyu.edu or (212)-998-5845. For questions about your rights as a research participant, you may contact the University Committee on Activities Involving Human Subjects, New York University, 665 Broadway, Suite 804, New York, New York, 10012, at ask.humansubjects@nyu.edu or (212) 998-4808. Please reference the study #IRB-FY2018-1765 when contacting the IRB. Three students, Aisha Faulkner, Hayden Jeon, and Beth Schweitzer, are completing this graduate research project as part of their Masters of Occupational Therapy degree at New York University, under the supervision of Janet Njelesani, Assistant Professor.

Thank you for your consideration in taking part in this study.

New OJOTC Yom Tov Calendar

About 7 years ago, OJOTC published a 10-year Yom Tov Calendar that many members have given to their colleges and/or employers.

We have updated that calendar.

It now runs through 2020.

Send us an e-mail at calendar@ojotc.org and we will send you a .pdf copy of the calendar.

Or e-mail us and let us know who we should send a copy to you.

Coast to Coast...

..and border to border.

We now have OJOTC members all across the United States, in 26 different states, from New York to California, from Florida to Oregon.

That's in addition to Israel and Canada.

And we are still growing.

If you are not a member, sign up today.

Just follow this link: <http://www.ojotc.org/id2.html>

Membership is free, and the larger we grow, the more influence we have in representing our religious needs.

E-Mail Addresses

Are you changing your e-mail address? Make sure to let us know. Most e-mail servers don't forward mail (like the U.S. Postal Service does).

Send us your new address to members@ojotc.org

(And, of course, if you know of OT's or OT Students who should be on our list, tell them to send us their names and e-mail addresses.)
